News Release

03/17/2013

Sheriff Lavender reports that his office is investigating a robbery that occurred in the early morning hours of March 17th 2013 in the 1400 block of Lunbeck Road.

Deputies responded to the Adena Regional Medical Center Emergency Room on March 17th 2013 at approximately 4:00 a.m. and spoke with two male victims and one female victim. Statements obtained from the victims indicate that there were four suspects wearing masks. Two of the suspects were reported to be carrying handguns and two were reported to have long guns. None of the victims were able to give any further descriptions.

One of the victims reported his wallet being taken with an undetermined amount of cash.

Deputies responded to the residence and photographed the scene and collected several pieces of evidence to be sent to B.C.I. for testing.

The investigation into this incident is ongoing and further details will be released as they become available.
