“Project School Tools” – a local outreach to families in need – hopes to provide new school supplies for 800 children in our community.

Back packs filled with age-appropriate school supplies will be distributed to eligible families on August 14 at the Salvation Army.

“Project School Tools” - is a collaboration of community agencies, organizations and businesses that work together each year to help all children prepare for a successful school year. Your support is appreciated.

Thanks to Ohio State University students who are joining us today in this community service project.

Thanks for making a difference!
